Shabbos Nachamu (Shabbat of Consolation)

The Shabbat after the Ninth of Av is called Shabbat Nachamu ("Shabbat of Consolation") after the opening words of the day's reading from the prophets ("haftara"). This is the first of the series of readings known as "The Seven of Consolation" read in the seven weeks from the Ninth of Av to Rosh Hashanah.

Torah Studies: Eikev: The First Step is Forgiveness

In this week's Torah Studies class we'll be focusing on the key concepts of human repentance and Divine forgiveness. We'll focus on HaShem's role as Divine Judge, and contrast the differences between Divine Justice and forgiveness, and human justice and forgiveness. We will see that Divine forgiveness comes so very easily, but once we are forgiven, the real work has just begun.

JRunners Relay of 2010 is the brainchild of a group of Jewish runners determined to demonstrate their support for a friend diagnosed with ALS, also referred to as Lou Gehrig's disease. To support a Jewish family in their time of need, whose father suffers from ALS visit: <http://www.jrunnersrelay.org/my/larryello>

This is a 200k relay race from Brooklyn to the Catskills. If you'd like to come out to the relay for support, I'll be playing music at Exchange 20, near Pine Island, NY, on Thursday, July 29th. Here are the main map and the Exchange Point 20 map:

An Old Joke

For the first time in many years Sam went to the movies. He then stopped at the concession stand to purchase some popcorn. Handing the attendant his money, he couldn't help but comment, "The last time I came to the movies, popcorn was only 15 cents." "Well, sir," the attendant replied with a grin, "You're really going to enjoy yourself. We now have sound!"
